RE: Antonio Callaway Case

PRESS RELEASE

FROM AMY E. OSTERYOUNG, ESQ.
PARTNER, JOHNSON & OSTERYOUNG, P.A.

We have read what the complainant's attorney has released to the press.

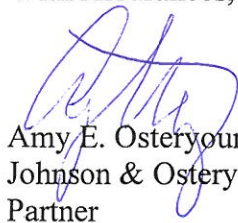

We consider his actions inappropriate and an attempt at intimidation.

Since the complainant's attorney' has chosen to go to the press in this matter, we assume that he will be releasing the hundreds of pages that made up the University of Florida's investigation. We assume that he will be releasing the sworn affidavits in this case. We assume that he will be releasing the complainant's text messages in the investigation. We assume that he will be releasing the complainant's multitude of varying and conflicting stories.

We are not going to besmirch his client in the press. The totality of the investigation which is over one-thousand (1,000) pages will do that for us.

Our client has asked us not to release anything at this point. Because of the conduct of the complainant's attorney, that may change in the future.

With Assurances,

Amy E. Osteryoung, Esq.
